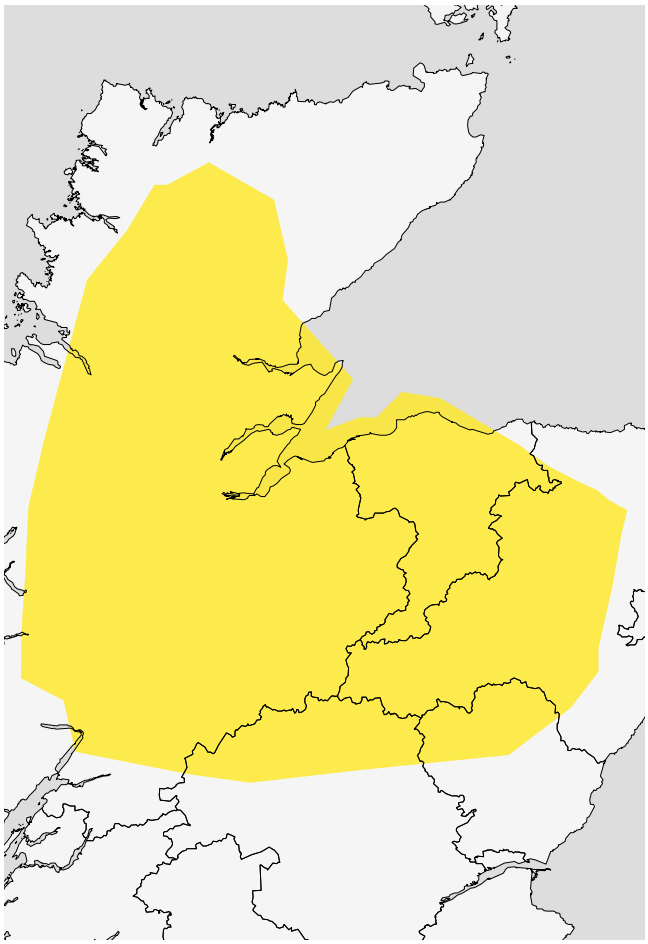
Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between
00:00 Thu 21 Jan 2021 and
12:00 Fri 22 Jan 2021



Heavy snow and strong winds will bring blizzard conditions at times and cause travel disruption. Ice will be an additional hazard in places.

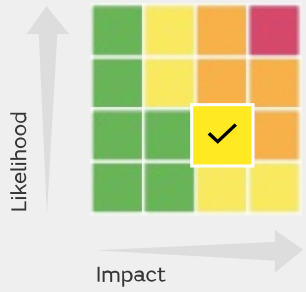
What to expect

- Possible travel delays on roads stranding some vehicles and passengers
- Possible delays or cancellations to rail and air travel
- Some rural communities could become cut off
- Power cuts may occur and other services, such as mobile phone coverage, may be affected

Further details

Spells of snow will continue for the rest of Thursday and through Friday morning. Snow will be heavy at times, especially above 200 m, with the heaviest snow occurring east of the Great Glen. Snow accumulations of a few cms are possible at low-levels whilst 10-20 cm snow is likely above around 200 m. Icy stretches will be an additional hazard in places on Friday morning.

In addition, strong winds will develop on Thursday, leading to blizzard conditions at times over higher ground, and icing on infrastructure, such as power lines. Winds will become less strong during Friday morning.



✓ Low likelihood of medium impacts
